MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

VIA: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence
Executive Director
Deputy Director for Administration

STAT FROM:

[REDACTED]
CIA Co-Representative to SIG-I Working Group

STAT SUBJECT: SIG-I Working Group Presidential Report on Counterintelligence and Countermeasures [REDACTED]

STAT 1. On 18 September, the SIG-I is to consider Subject draft which has received final editorial changes by the Working Group. Recognizing that no report of this nature will totally please anyone, I am able to report that all of the major countermeasures concerns expressed by CIA components have been essentially met. CI Staff has advised that counterintelligence concerns have also been met. [REDACTED]

STAT 2. I want to alert you to one potentially troublesome issue. During the final meeting of the Working Group, the role of the SIG-I in developing CI/CM policy guidance was the subject of considerable misunderstanding and debate. [REDACTED]

STAT 3. Working Group representatives from the Department of Justice and the National Security Council Staff expressed concerns that the broadening of the IGs to include participation by non-Intelligence Community agencies is perceived in some quarters as an inappropriate extension of DCI authority. Apparently, some fear erosion of the distinction between the functions of organizations such as the IGs, which are responsible for government-wide discussion and development of policy guidance and those, such as the Office of Personnel Management, which have prescribed authority to make policy decisions.
